HAPPY

Raksha Bandhan

“Tying Threads of Love & Ability”

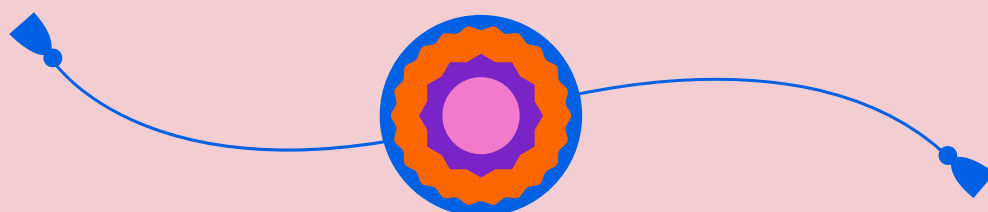

This Raksha Bandhan, celebrate the bond of love with rakhis that carry a deeper meaning. Each rakhi in this collection is lovingly handcrafted by divyang students, showcasing their talent, dedication, and spirit. By choosing these rakhis, you not only honor your sibling but also support a journey of empowerment and inclusion.

The background of the slide is decorated with colorful floral and geometric patterns. In the top left and bottom right corners, there are large, intricate mandala-like designs in shades of red, orange, yellow, and blue. A central decorative element consists of a blue circle with a pink and orange floral pattern inside, connected by a blue line with tassels to the top and bottom of the slide.
